ARTICLE II. - GARAGE AND YARD SALES

Sec. 26-19. - Frequency, duration.

Sec. 26-20. - Signs advertising sales.

Sec. 26-19.- Frequency, duration.

Occasional sales of household goods and personal property shall be permitted within the city limits, but such occasional sales, whether they are designated as yard sales, garage sales, porch sales, moving sales, basement sales or household or personal goods sales, including estate sales, shall not be held on any premises more often than once every 30 days, and in no case shall any such sale exceed three days in duration.

(Code 1994, § 54-26; Ord. No. 67, 11-13-1991)

Sec. 26-20.- Signs advertising sales.

Signs advertising sales governed by this article shall not be posted for more than four consecutive days, either on the property where the sale is occurring or on any other property in the city where permission has been granted. Such signs are prohibited on utility poles and in the public rights-of-way.

(Code 1994, § 54-27; Ord. No. 67, 11-13-1991)
